EMMETT PURYEAR, OF BOYLE.

For County Judge.

T. A. RICE,
M. F. NORTH,

For Jailor.

PEYTON PARRISH,
GEORGE DEBORDE
DINK FARMER
WILLIAM H. HESTER
W. A. CARSON

For Assessor

P. L. BECK.

For Magistrate

J. T. ROBERTS
WILLIAM FIELDS
J. D. EADS,

Every week or so, the Frankfort paper finds a new entry in the Congressional race in the Eighth district, but so far none has put up his money in announcements in the papers of the district. Take it from us, the gratuitous boosting alleged candidates are getting from papers out of the district, is about all that it will amount to. Congressman Harvey Helm is a sure winner, and we would not be a bit surprised to see him go to the post in the primary in August as the only entry. It seems to be the policy of the opposition of anybody to beat Helm, and we read of schemes and combines by other prospective candidates, in their efforts to somehow encompass his defeat. Strikes us that it would be a good plan for these valiant democrats to get together in a plan to help roll up a democratic majority in the district next fall, instead of plotting to defeat one of the men who has admittedly done so much to make democratic victory in the nation almost certain.

BOB TAYLOR

Famous Fiddling Senator, of Tennessee Lays Bow Aside Forever

Washington, April 1.—Robert Love Taylor, senior United States Senator from Tennessee—"Fiddling Bob" to all the South—died here today, unable to withstand the shock from an operation for gall stones, performed last Thursday.

"Fiddling Bob", Taylor, so known because he played his way into the hearts of his audiences, carrying his violin wherever he campaigned, was 61 years old.

He was born in Happy Valley, in Eastern Tennessee, but spent most of his life at Nashville practicing law. He belonged to an office-holding family. His father was a Representative in Congress and Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and an uncle was in the Confederate Senate.

Once Pension Agent at Knoxville, three Governor of Tennessee, from 1887 to 1897 and 1897 to 1899, Senator Taylor forged his way to the National House of Representatives from the same Congressional District that had previously sent his father to Congress, and later his brother, Alfred A. Taylor, whom he subsequently defeated for governor. Senator Taylor was a Cleveland Democrat. He had served in the Senate since January, 1907.

SPRING SUITING

My new spring and summer samples are now ready for your inspection. They comprise the best on the market. I can suit anyone as to price who had his clothes made to order. A suit made to your measure is preferable to ready made clothes. To have them made to measure doesn't cost any more than ready made when quality and fit is considered. Come in and let me take your measure.

H. C. Rupley, The Practical Tailor.
